

LONGMONT YOUTH SYMPHONY

announces

Spreading the Harmony

- Young Musicians Opportunity Program -

Supported by a recent grant, the Longmont Youth Symphony is now offering financial assistance to young musicians interested in joining LYS.

Under this program, LYS will provide:

- ▮ Tuition scholarships for all LYS ensembles (grades 3-12)
- ▮ Payment assistance for private lessons arranged through LYS

The program is open to current LYS musicians and to students who are not yet members of the Longmont Youth Symphony. Families with financial constraints are encouraged to apply.

We are especially looking for students playing the following instruments:

Flute Oboe French Horn Trumpet Trombone Tuba
Percussion String Bass Viola

Auditions will be held on February 2, 2013 at Silver Creek High School. To access an application form for the program and to schedule an audition, please visit the program webpage: <http://www.LongmontYouthSymphony.org/SpreadingTheHarmony>.

For more information, call (303)351-1452 or email info@longmontyouthsymphony.org